

COWS UNITE

THE BOVINE BILL OF RIGHTS

People, rise up and take back your milk! We are the bovine Sisters of Cows Unite. We're organic cows and we've got a few serious beefs:

COWS HAVE THE RIGHT TO BE COWS.

Cows are not machines—we are equals in the interdependent circle of life. All our rights begin with this right.

COWS HAVE THE RIGHT TO GRAZE.

Turn us loose to graze in pastures free of synthetic pesticides and herbicides. We will take only what we need and we will refresh the soil. You will be happier for it, too. Our milk will be delicious and delightful. Promise.

COWS HAVE THE RIGHT TO JUST SAY NO TO DRUGS.

The days of experimentation are over. Stop pushing the synthetic hormones and antibiotics! Organic is the right way for Sisters everywhere.

COWS HAVE THE RIGHT TO DIGNITY AND JOY.

When we are free to move about outdoors, it's our best opportunity for dignity, health and joy—and a chance at joy should be the right of all living things. Even dogs.

COWS HAVE THE RIGHT TO DECENT HELP.

Sure, us cows are the all-stars, but the time has come to say thanks to the little guys – the organic family farmers. We can't do this alone. Fair pay for an honest day's nurturing and care. It's all we ask. Viva la Family Farm!

COWS HAVE THE RIGHT TO CLEAN AIR.

Nothing makes us breathe easier than local customers. When you choose milk from pastures close by, you reduce trucking. It's pretty nifty. Less air pollution, less fuel used, and support for your neighboring farmers, all from one little milk choice.

JOIN US.

The Sisters of Cows Unite need your human help. We ask that you consider our rights and talk to your family and friends about our basic needs. Join the resistance and follow the steps outlined below.

1. Choose organic milk from cows whose rights are upheld.
2. Sign up to receive your first human assignment.
3. Tell your friends about www.cowsunite.org
